Healing Circle with the 4 elements for the full well-being of BEING

We will make a powerful and beautiful Healing Circle where we will connect with the four forces of Mother Nature: the Sacred Fire, the Blessed Water, the Immaculate Air and the Holy Earth. Using its pure and transformative power, we will perform a powerful work of healing and balancing the various levels of Being, harmonizing our physical, emotional, mental and spiritual body to be able to manifest, here and now, the most authentic WELL-BEING that every being deserves to experience. Any person who is willing, through their will and pure heart, to generate a healthy, beautiful, happy and harmonious universe in their life can assist.

= Saturday October 19. Full day workshop =

HEALING THE WOUNDS OF THE SOUL

Within this workshop we will learn and perform all kinds of healing techniques and processes that allow us to work with ourselves, and with other beings, at the SOUL level.

The multiple traumatic, negative or shocking experiences leave their mark on the memories of the soul. These memories of suffering are active, and therefore are having negative effects on our current life; Healing soul memories is essential in our evolutionary path. In the same way, we can help heal the wounds of the SOUL of beings that have already left their physical body, helping them to return to the pure and crystalline state that vibrates in the highest spheres of light, returning the brightness to the SOUL.

Through Vibrational Medicine, we will make powerful transformations that will allow us to contact the true will of the SOUL, already clean, pure and crystalline, so that in this way it reflects the divine light of our Higher Self.

= Sunday, October 20. Full day workshop =

PREPARATION FOR NOVEMBER 1: how to work with the souls of the dead.

November 1 is the day when the souls of the deceased energetically return to this material plane. On this very important day we can do a wonderful work of healing and well-being for souls by learning how to work with them in the most harmonious way, to return peace, light, healing and happiness to the souls of our loved ones who have already transcended this physical body.

In the same way, we will learn how to generate a powerful protection to clean all the negative energy that rises this day from unhealthy souls around the world. This is a wonderful time to make a very deep cleaning of the bonds we create with death, cleaning the negative ties we have established with some souls of beings from our past. Thanks to this healing process we will be able to undo the energetic knots with the soul of some deceased, acquiring more life, freedom, happiness and an exquisite feeling that we are the one who is directing our own life.
